

TRACK 15 PROGRAMME

TUE, July 26

Session 1	Title of the session: Activist organizing for community and proximity infrastructures Chair: Francesco Campagnari
Time: 10.00-11.30	Presenter's name	Presentation title
10.00-10.30	John Sturzaker	Communities, participation, planning and development
10.30-11.00	Lita Akmentina	Neighborhood Activism in Riga: Are Urban Movements Bridging the Gap Between Citizens and Local Authorities in Post-Socialist Cities?
11.00-11.30	Lorenzo de Strobel de Haustadt e Schwanenfeld	Facing social justice through urban commoning: the case study of Lucha y Siesta

Session 3	Title of the session: Activism and participatory governance in environmental planning Chair: Olivier Sykes
Time: 14.30-16.00	Presenter's name	Presentation title
14.30-15.00	Andrea Aragone	Hydrological communities in action. The case of "Bruxelles sensible à l'eau" action research project
15.00-15.30	Jorge Gonçalves	New values, actors and strategies in the urban ecosystem. The Movement for the Caracol da Penha Garden as a pedagogical case.
15.30-16.00	Maria-Dorothea Wolf	Just talk? Approaching Bottom-up Practices of Local Actors to Address Environmental-Related Challenges in Southern Chile

WED, July 27

Title of the session: Activist planning between theory, practices and public action Chair: Francesco Campagnari
Session 5	Presenter's name	Presentation title
Time: 10.00-11.30
10.00-10.22	Tore Sager	Did Advocacy Planning Perform as Expected?
10.22-10.44	Petri Kangassalo	Activism in digital twin cities: planning support system for self-organizing urban planning
10.44-11.08	Talia Margalit	Activism and Property rights: Newspaper coverage of planning in Tel Aviv-Jaffa
11.08-11.30	Annika Guhl	How Urban-Political Protest Against Gentrification Leads to Socio-Spatial Change in the Neighborhood of Leipzig-Connewitz

Title of the session: Shaping spaces together: activism in spatial planning Chair: Olivier Sykes
Session 6	Presenter's name	Presentation title
Time: 12.00-13.30
12.00-12.30	Anna Wilczyńska	„Invisible city” – Informal and creative small scale interventions in Tartu.
12.30-13.00	Christian Lamker	Citizen Engagement: Shaping Places Together – and re-shaping spatial planning
13.00-13.30	Evija Taurene	Including and performing activism in the spatial planning practice: observations and reflections from two Latvian towns

Title of the session: Civic initiatives interacting with planning and administrative processes Chair: Olivier Sykes
Session 7	Presenter's name	Presentation title
Time: 14.30-16.00
14.30-14.52	Zhen Li	Civic activism and contested consensus approach in the network age: case studies of Chinese urban renewal
14.52-15.16	Giovanna Muzzi	Between practice and research: the role of the association ETICity in the projects for the urban reactivation of the Piave neighbourhood in Mestre
15.16-15.38	Angelique Chettiparamb	Civic Societies and the Planning Process: Exploring the role of local civic societies in the English planning system
15.38-16.00	Francesco Campagnari	Planners as intermediate activists for urban governance innovation. Bridging professional, civil society and political roles to make sense of, problematize and innovate governance culture.