

TRACK 7 PROGRAMME

TUE, July 26

Title of the session: Walking/Walkability Chair: Viktorija Prilenska
Session 1	Presenter's name	Presentation title
Time: 10.00-11.30
10.00-10.18	Lisa Marie Brunner	Urban design, time perception and walking - can the study of pedestrians' time perception benefit the design of a walkable urban environment?
10.18-10.36	Elisabetta Vitale Brovarone	Good in theory, complicated in practice: understanding conflicts behind pedestrianisation initiatives in Turin
10.36-10.54	Alessandro Fois	Pedestrian profiles in the Netherlands and Europe. Walking, a privilege, a right, or an obligation?
10.54-11.12	Noriko Otsuka	Mixed methods approach to assessing perceived walkability in urban neighbourhoods
11.12-11.30	Tetsuo Yai	Applying mental envelope theorem in human-centered public spaces

Title of the session: Urban Mobility and Commuting Chair: Koos Fransen
Session 3	Presenter's name	Presentation title
Time: 14.30-16.00
14.30-14.48	Daniel Piatkowski	Bicycling through the Pandemic, in Car-Country, USA
14.48-15.06	Annika Wismer	The Importance of Everyday Mobility in Residential Location Decisions of Berlin Households – First Results from an Innovative Approach to a Complex Relationship
15.06-15.24	Samira Ramezani	Urban Mobility Lifestyles, Travel behavior, Perceived Health and Life Satisfaction, The Case Of Turku Region
15.24-15.42	Katja Schimohr	Travel-related neighborhood characteristics and attitudes as a motive for relocation and residential choice
15.42-16.00	Samira Dibaj	Observations of social (un)learning around e-scooter emergence: Case Helsinki

Title of the session: Rural and Suburban Mobility, Car Dependence Chair: Jan Scheurer
Session 4	Presenter's name	Presentation title
Time: 16.30-18.00
16.30-16.52	Elisabetta Vitale Brovarone	Addressing accessibility in peripheral areas: concepts, challenges and perspectives
16.52-17.16	Önne Kask	Accelerating hub developments for inclusive mobility: key findings from the case of Groningen and Drenthe in the Netherlands
17.16-17.38	Eva Van Eenoo	A car as a luxury good or a necessity? Actual and perceived car dependence: a case study in Ghent (Belgium).
17.38-18.00	Byron Ioannou	Sustainable mobility challenges and gaps for low density suburbia. Assessment of the community consciousness

WED, July 27

Title of the session: Public Transport Chair: Fabian Dembski
Session 5	Presenter's name	Presentation title
Time: 10.00-11.30
10.00-10.18	Michael Wicki	What do citizens want from railway stations? Insights from a survey experiment
10.18-10.36	David Weinreich	COVID-19: Survey of European Transport Providers and their Financial Experience
10.36-10.54	Ehab Diab	Revisiting transit ridership: Understanding the relationship between different measures of local transit accessibility and the use of transit by different groups of users.
10.54-11.12	Daniel Štraub	Fares were just impossible: Geography and rationale of fare-free public transport in Poland
11.12-11.30	Jesus Lopez Baeza	Optimization of SpaceSyntax computation for large-scale evaluation of urban railway station environments

Title of the session: Relationship Mobility and Spatial Planning, TOD Chair: Michael Wicki
Session 6	Presenter's name	Presentation title
Time: 12.00-13.30
12.00-12.22	Maria Käpyvaara	The implications of transport decarbonisation for spatial planning
12.22-12.44	Jan Scheurer	Transit-Activated Corridors and Zero-Carbon Cities: Learning from the experience of pioneers
12.44-13.08	wim leendertse	Redevelopment of Transport Infrastructure as driver for accelerating societal transitions. An inclusive perspective on sustainable infrastructure planning
13.08-13.30	Maya El Khawand	The role of Transit Oriented Development (TOD) in multi-scale accessibility. Methodological considerations applied to the periphery of Ile-de-France.

Title of the session: Transport Justice and Right to Mobility Chair: Eva Van Enoo
Session 7	Presenter's name	Presentation title
Time: 14.30-16.00
14.30-14.48	Thomas Verbeek	Operationalising just sustainability: a comparative analysis of justice discourses around low emission zones in London and Brussels
14.48-15.06	Koos Fransen	Are urban vehicle access regulations just? The dos and don'ts of sustainable urban transformation
15.06-15.24	Ángel Aparicio	A right or a burden: On the dubious joys of motorized mobility
15.24-15.42	Mariana Imbelloni Braga Albuquerque	How do we pave a right? – thinking right to mobility from women's displacements in Rio de Janeiro
15.42-16.00	Stefanie Ruf	(No) Drivers For Change – Crises As A Disruption of Urban Mobility?

THU, July 28

Title of the session: Transport Governance Chair: Viktorija Prilenska
Session 9	Presenter's name	Presentation title
Time: 10.00-11.30
10.00-10.22	Ward Rauws	How last-mile logistics will shape our cities. A stakeholder perspective on city logistics in Western Europe between 2020 and 2035
10.22-10.44	Tibor Rongen	Negotiating the development of a rural mobility hub using game theory
10.44-11.08	Önne Kask	Towards sustainable and seamless island connections: The case of the Dutch Wadden islands
11.08-11.30	Samira Dibaj	Discursive co-construction of e-scooter emergence: Comparative study of media and resident feedback in Helsinki

Title of the session: Transport Inequalities Chair: Thomas Verbeek
Session 10	Presenter's name	Presentation title
Time: 12.00-13.30
12.00-12.30	Andres Sevtsuk	Socio-spatial determinants of mobility inequality: A big-data analysis of 500 U.S. cities.
12.30-13.00	Age Poom	Spatial disparities in environmental exposure during walking: a comparison of mobility- and residential-based approach using mobile phone data
13.00-13.30	Ahmed Tarek Alahwal	Justice of cycling infrastructure provision in Egypt